DEPARTMENT OF CSE, University College of Engineering, O.U.

Software Engineering 1005237290O8

Class Test 1 BE (AML) IV semester
Date: 29/03/2025; Test duration 1 ½ hours Max marks: 30

Instructions: Set a margin of at least 2 in on left side for each of the pages.

Part A (10 Marks) Each Question weighs 2 marks

1 a). What is Debugging applicable to S/E product?
1 b). How would you handle a situation where a project you're working on is behind schedule?
1 c). Why do we use abstract classes in architecting the project? [Refer the construction phase]
1 d). Explain what is Software prototyping and Proof Of Concept (POC).
1 e). Explain precisely about Pair Programming with the advantages.

Part B (2 x 10 Marks)
Answer any 2 Questions.

2 a). How do you explain technical information to non-technical audiences?
b). Describe the development (Construction phase) of SDLC process in software development.

3 a). What are functional and non-functional requirements? Support your answer by taking any example of software product development.
b). Describe the different phases involved in water fall methodology of SDLC process. What are the limitations of this process?

4 a). Briefly mention the advantages and disadvantages of Agile Methodology
b). Describe the steps involved in SAFe practice.

—